Is Something None of Us Like to Think of, Yet we know not when disease and its ravages will attack us. We neglect the small things in life to grasp larger ones We neglect our health, which is the most important factor to our comfort and happi ness, and when it is gone what pleasure is left us? We feel badly, larguid, sleepy, but say its all right. "I will feel better in the morning." Morning comes, but the germs of disease have been planted; they eadily take root and grow in the broken down constitution. In place of feeling better we feel more depressed and more badly than we did the previous day. Pro-crastination is the thief of time; it is also the thief of health, for by procrastination oughly charged with malaria or the germs of fever it is no easy job to rid ourselves of them.
